

BIO DATA

NAME: PRATEEP V. PHILIP

DATE OF BIRTH: 09.09.61

MARITAL STATUS: Married

PRESENT POSITION: DEPUTY INSPECTOR GENERAL OF POLICE, Chennai.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

Served as District Superintendent of Police of Four Districts, SP, Narcotics Intelligence Bureau of Tamil Nadu, Principal, Police Training College and as DIG, CB CID (Special Investigation Team) Chennai, DIG Intelligence, DI Tirunelveli Range.

RESUME

QUALIFICATIONS:

1. B.A. 1983 - ECONOMICS, POLITICAL SCIENCE & HISTORY.
2. M.A. 1985 - POLITICAL SCIENCE and INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS.
3. Registered for Ph.D in Public Administration in 1995.

SCHOLARSHIPS:

1. National Talent Search Scholarship {1980}.
2. National Merit Scholarship {1983}.
3. British Gurukul Chevening Scholarship for Excellence and Leadership {1997}.

EQUILIBRIUM THINKING Created the concept, framework and technique of Equilibrium Thinking - a new thinking for the millennium which combines age old universal values relevant to modern living. The objectives of ET (Equilibrium Thinking) are self-realisation, self-development, stress-management, self-awareness, management of anger, aggression and the management of self for happiness and excellence.

Conducted Equilibrium Thinking workshops and presentations at:

1. The Press Club, Chennai.
2. I I T, Chennai
3. Southern Conferences of the National Institute of Personnel Management, Chennai and Trivandrum
4. Chennai Institute of Management.
5. Jain School, Sowcarpet.
6. Chinmaya Vidyalaya (for Teachers), Virugambakkam.
7. Satyabhama Engineering College MBA Students.
8. The Hindu Office.
9. International Youth Co-ordinators symposium
10. Madras Management Association (MMA).
11. INDO NATIONAL
12. TCIS
13. MRL, Manali
14. I.S.T.D.

PUBLICATIONS

1. Friends of Police Movement- Texas Police Journal 1995.
2. Friends of Police Movement- Law and Order Management Magazine, USA 1996.
3. Friends of Police Concept - The Police Journal, UK 1996
4. Friends of Police Movement- The Criminal Justice, Europe.
5. An Innovative Concept to Sensitise Police Personnel - Texas Police Journal.
6. An Innovative concept to Sensitise Police Personnel- Australian Police Journal.
7. Friends of Police Concept - National Police Academy Journal.
8. The Friends of Police Movement - National Journal of Criminology.
9. Friends of Police who help build bridges - "The Hindu" National Daily.
10. Articles on Friends of Police as an Innovative concept also published in the CRPF Journal, Surakshe, AP P Journal, The Police Journal BPR&D, CBI Bulletin.

WEBSITES

1. A movement in Community Policing and a concept for empowerment hosted by National Criminal Justice Reference USA.
2. An International Blue print for Community Policing hosted by OICJ University of Illinois, USA
3. www.friendsofpolice.org

CONFERENCES:

1. Presented a paper at the Indian Police Science Congress.
2. Presented a paper at the National Criminological Conference, Bangalore, 1996.
3. Presented a paper at the International Conference on Rights of Prisoners, Ramachandra Medical University.
4. Invited to present two papers at the International Conference on Policing held in Slovenia, Europe in November.
5. Was Invited to be a resource person and key speaker at the International Seminar on Human Rights, hosted by the British Council and the Human Rights Commission.

RELEVANT TEACHING EXPERIENCE:

1. Lord Scarman Centre, Leicester, UK.
2. The Institute of Advanced Legal Studies, London, UK.
3. The Anna Institute of Management, Chennai.
4. The National Police Academy, Hyderabad.
5. The State Police Training College, Chennai.

PERSONAL HOBBIES AND INTERESTS:

Reading, Public Speaking and Writing.

COURSES ATTENDED:

1. Management Development Programme - State Bank of India Training College, Hyderabad.
2. Bureau of Parliamentary Studies.
3. Management in Government Programme, HCM Institute of Public Administration, Jaipur.
4. British Gurukul Chevening Scholarship Program in Excellence and Leadership, London School of Economics, London.
5. Vertical Interaction Course for Senior Officers at the Institute of Management, Lucknow.
6. Cyber-crime Conference, organised by the CBI at Bangalore in April 2001.

RESEARCH:

Research into the impact of the Friends of Police Movement in Tamil Nadu .

EMPLOYMENT:

1984-1987

Officer - State Bank of India.

1987 -- : IPS Officer.

LANGUAGES KNOWN

Besides English, Hindi, Tamil, Kannada, Malayalam, French & German.

AWARDS:

Was awarded the prestigious 15000 Pound Sterling Inaugural Queen's Award for Innovation in Police Training and Development, 2002 in the Commonwealth -wide competition

Nominated for the Ramon Magsaysay Award for Government Service
Awarded Communal Harmony Award of the Institute of National Integration

ACADEMIC AND CO-CURRICULAR ACHIEVEMENTS:

1. Selected for the award of British Gurukul Chevening Scholarship for Excellence and Leadership out of 2000 out candidates from all professions and parts of the country based on performance in two interviews. The pioneering multidisciplinary program was inaugurated on the occasion of India's Golden Jubilee to identify and train future the country in all sectors.
2. Secured First Rank out of one hundred thousand students in the Pre - University Examination in the State of Karnataka.
3. Secured National Talent search Scholarship based on an All India Competitive Examination and interview.
4. Awarded National Merit Scholarship
5. Secured University rank in M.A. Examinations with Economics, Political Science and International Relations as
6. Secured the highest aggregate in all B.A. Examinations with Economics, Political Science and History as major
7. Secured first place in French language examination at the university as also Trez Bien grade in the Diploma S course of Alliance Francaise.
8. Published articles in leading Indian Newspapers from 1981 onwards.
9. Secured prizes in debates, essay competitions, extempore speaking, dramatics and quizzes. One of the very few secure First Prize in both Debating and Oratorical contests in the National Police Academy.
10. Participated in panel discussions on All India Radio, Conducted Jubilee Quiz on Doordarshan Metro as Quiz and Conducted a Crime Quiz and Motley Quiz on DD, Metro.

PROFESSIONAL ACHIEVEMENTS:

1. Selected as Probationary Officer in State Bank of India and worked as O&M Officer in the local Head Office.
2. Wrote analysis of Road Mishap trends in the Metropolis of Madras as a Joint Deputy Commissioner of Traffic {Investigation}.
3. Served as District Chief or Superintendent of Police of 4 districts and handled many law and order, crime rel other issues.
4. As Superintendent of Police, Ramnad started the FOP movement. The movement was later extended to all district Commissionerates .
5. As Superintendent of Police, Ramnad started Shore Care Committees which were later extended to all coastal di in Tamil Nadu.
6. First Police Officer globally to conceive of an international blueprint for community policing. First IPS off Bureaucrat to have his article placed on an accredited Home page on the Internet by the University of Illinois, Only person from Asia to be invited to an International East-West Sharing Experience Conference in Europe.
7. As Superintendent of Police, Dharmapuri district started the Victim Assistance Program that led to the Govern setting up a corpus fund of Rs. Two Crores for Victim Assistance.
8. As Superintendent of Police, Narcotic Intelligence Bureau, CID, started FOP Drug -buster chapters all over th The report was published in "The Hindu" and also placed on the Internet as a permanent site.
9. As principal of the Police Training College of the state, trained 500 Sub-inspector cadets in the methods and philosophy of "FRIENDS OF POLICE MOVEMENT".
Was Invited to participate in panel discussions in Management Courses for Senior Officers at the National Police and to talk about innovations introduced in policing. Delivered lectures on Communication skills, Chairing a Mee other Management inputs at the Anna Institute of Management.
10. Served as a consultant in a UNDP funded Project: A study on the Quality of Policing in India (1999 - 2000).

MILESTONE :

The London School of Economics and Political Science is one of the most highly respected Universities in the wor boasting of such illustrious alumni as Sri.K.R.Narayanan, George Soros, David Rockefeller, Lord Saatchi, Sir Dav

Attenborough and John. F .Kennedy. The LSE has achieved this reputation as it affords opportunities to students their hypotheses not only with the leading academics and thinkers but also with policy makers and practitioners. theory is married with practice, the progeny are leadership and excellence."

I recently had the good fortune of being selected for the British Gurukul Chevening Scholarship for Excellence a Leadership. The Scholarship enabled twelve highflying achievers from India to attend a twelve - week, tailor-made programme based at the London school of Economics and Political Science. The course at the LSE ran for twelve weeks revolving round the theme of globalisation, and included nine weeks of academic inputs and three weeks of relevant and attachments. The course content included inputs in Strategic Management, Marketing, Global Governance, Management, Public Relations, Media and Communication, Management of Social change, Team Building, Problem solving, and Communication.

Prateep V. Philip I.P.S